PREFACE

We are pleased you are considering Jackson, Tennessee as a place to build or locate. Our goal is to make Jackson a safe and productive city in which to live and work. We are dedicated to achieving this goal by creating and nurturing a constructive working relationship between the construction industry and our personnel through providing the most efficient and professional service possible. In an effort to provide professional service, each of our staff is required to be certified by the International Code Council, Inc. in their respective field. Building and Fire Inspectors are also required to be state certified. The State of Tennessee, Fire Marshal's Office, issues the certification and mandates continuing education as a requirement to maintain each certification. Please call upon us should you have questions regarding the information in this pamphlet or any adopted Code. Every effort will be made to respond to your requests as expeditiously as possible.

This guide has been printed to aid the designer/contractor in his/her endeavor to comply with the construction codes enforced by the City of Jackson. We have attempted to be as inclusive as possible regarding enforcing agencies and/or codes. Please note that this guide is intended as an overview only and in all cases adopted codes shall prevail should conflicts with this document occur.

JURISDICTION

Through hard work, education, responsibility and respect, the City of Jackson is one of the few Tennessee jurisdictions which enjoy an exemption status. This exemption was granted by the State of Tennessee Fire Marshal's Office. The City of Jackson Building and Department of Neighborhood Services has jurisdiction over all construction within the corporate limits of Jackson with the exception of Federally-owned buildings. The City of Jackson will require plans review and inspections of State-owned buildings with the exception of electrical inspections and educational occupancies. (See other agencies.) Existing buildings are the jurisdiction of the City of Jackson Fire Department. Additions to, or changes in occupancy involving existing buildings, are handled by the City of Jackson Building and Department of Neighborhood Services.

IS THIS CURRENT INFORMATION

From time to time codes/policies/procedures change. If you have any doubt as to whether this guide is current information, please contact our office and reference the date to the bottom left corner of the cover. Should your guide be outdated, please disregard and request a current copy.

CANCELLATION OF SCORES

On rare occasions, circumstances may render examination scores invalid. International Code Council and/or the Building and Department of Neighborhood Services reserves the right to cancel or withhold any examination scores if, in either's sole opinion, there is adequate reason to question the validity of certain results. Cancelled scores may result from two situations:

1. Doubts may be raised about the validity of certain scores because of suspected misconduct, such as giving or receiving help or removing materials or notes from the examination for someone else. In such circumstances, examinees will be expected to cooperate in an investigation of their scores.
2. Some scores may be rendered invalid because of circumstances beyond the examinee's control, such as faulty examination materials. These situations will be thoroughly investigated. When such occurrences result in cancellation of an examinee's scores, the applicant will be allowed to test at the next scheduled time at no additional fee.

SECURITY

An important aspect of the International Code Council examination program is the strict adherence to rules governing the security of copyrighted examination materials. This security has a significant impact on the value and prestige of the program. The beneficiaries are those who become licensed.

REGULATIONS AT THE EXAM CENTER

The following regulations and procedures will be observed at every examination administration:

1. The examination will be held only on the dates and times scheduled. Be prompt.

2. Bring three or four sharpened No. 2 pencils and a good eraser. Pencils or erasers will not be furnished at the test site. You will not be permitted to use ballpoint pens, colored pencils, or felt pens. Also bring a ruler.
3. Bring a watch. Although time is not intended to be a factor, you should keep track. Do not allow yourself to become bogged down on any one question. You will not be permitted to continue a test beyond the established time limit under any circumstances.
4. Candidates are permitted to take an unlimited number of reference books into the examination room for use during the open book portion of the exam. The use of bound, copyrighted reference material is permitted for the open book portion of all examinations. This material may not be used during the closed book portion of the exam. You are permitted to use electronic calculators. Special seating is not available to accommodate solar calculators or electrical supply cords. You are not permitted to bring any copier-recorder or other mechanical or electronic devices which would make copies of or record test materials. Such devices will be confiscated by the proctor and the owner will be escorted from the testing center. No fees will be returned and you may be prosecuted. All materials may be inspected by proctors on arrival and prior to leaving the examination room.
5. Visitors are not permitted in the examination room.
6. If you wish to leave the room during the examination, you must ask permission from the proctor. Only one person will be allowed to leave the testing area at any one time. You will not be allowed additional time to make up for the time lost.
7. Writing in or on reference materials is prohibited.
8. Examinees may not share reference materials.
9. Questions concerning the content of the examinations may not be asked.
10. Any examinee who gives or receives assistance during the examination will be required to turn in his or her materials immediately and leave the room. In addition, the proctor shall dismiss an examinee for any of the following reasons:
 - (a) Creating a disturbance.
 - (b) Attempting to remove materials or notes from the examination room.
 - (c) Copying exam questions down on separate material.
 - (d) Giving or receiving assistance during the exam.

TAKING THE EXAMINATION

Quiet must be maintained both inside and outside the examination room, make sure that you are not talking loudly or in any way disturbing the examinees in the examination room.

Each applicant will be given an exam booklet, plans (if necessary), an answer sheet, and a remark sheet. All of this material and any scratch paper used during the exam must be enclosed in the return envelope.

Each question in the booklet has one, and only one, correct answer. In answering the questions, select the one response which answers each question and mark the corresponding space on the answer sheet. If more than one response or no response is marked, no credit will be given for the question.

Keep track of time. You will have time to complete the examination and check your work only if you work steadily, and do not spend too much time on those questions that are difficult for you. After a reasonable time, mark on the answer sheet the answer you think is correct and go on to the next question. Then, if you finish before time is called, you can go back to the questions you have doubts about.

All questions have equal value. Your score will be based on the number of correct answers you give, therefore it is to your advantage to answer every question. There is no penalty for guessing.

All marks other than your chosen answers must be erased completely. Do not rest your pencil in the response area, since this may inadvertently cause stray marks that could be taken for response by the optical reading equipment.

Any comments pertaining to the exam or site should be recorded by you on the remark sheet and returned with all examination materials to the proctor in the envelope. Under no circumstances are examination materials to be taken from the room.

All exam materials received at the exam site must be returned to the proctor. Failure to return all materials will disqualify the candidate's score and International Code Council and/or the Building and Department of Neighborhood Services may refuse any further applications from the candidate for testing.

Section 8-5 Penalty for violation of Codes.

The violation of any of the provisions of these codes by any person, firm or corporation is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor and any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of these codes or the amendments thereto shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each offense. Every day that a violation of this code is permitted to continue shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 8-5.1 Fee Penalties.

Where work for such a permit is required by the codes in chapter 8 and/or 12 is started or proceeded with prior to obtaining said permit, the fees herein specified shall be doubled, but the payment of such double fee shall not relieve any persons from fully complying with the requirements of this code in the execution of the work nor from any other penalties prescribed herein. When any one contractor and/or individual has his/her permit doubled three (3) or more times in any given 90 day period he/she shall pay an additional 100 dollar permit fee.

A reinspection is subject to a reinspection fee should a permit holder request an inspection prior to the project being ready for the requested inspection when an additional trip is required to the project site for said reinspection.

The reinspection fee shall be set forth in a "Schedule of Fees" as authorized and approved from time to time by resolution of the City Council.
